

The Art of Lip Print Reading by Jilly Eddy

Jilly Eddy, the world's first Lipsologist, is the creator of Lipsology, the unique art and science of reading personality characteristics and energy levels from an individual's Lip Prints.

For over twenty years she has collected and analyzed more than 10,000 lip prints from around the world.

In addition to teaching and speaking, Jilly regularly entertains at over one hundred corporate and private events every year. She offers Lipsology readings at conventions, fund raisers, product launches and trade shows.

Her corporate clients include Microsoft, Amgen, Davis Wright Tremaine, Adobe, the Red Cross, the Seattle Children's Hospital, and even the US Navy!

Many of her clients use Jilly's talents year after year and several times a year.

Microsoft, for one, enjoys Lipsology at many of their product launches, including their massive MSN Search Launch Party, as well as employee picnics, holiday parties and staff meetings.

Jilly's private parties include birthdays, anniversaries, reunions, Bat and Bar Mitzvahs, grad night parties, housewarmings, bridal showers and weddings.

Wherever Jilly goes, people of all ages want her to read their lip prints. The verdict is universal: awe at Jilly's amazingly accurate personality and energy readings.

Jilly has been featured in the New York Times, the Chicago Tribune, Los Angeles Times, and the Seattle Times. She has also been interviewed on numerous regional television and radio shows, from the Northwest to Nashville.

Lip Prints talk ... find out what yours have to say!TM

Jilly's book, Lipsology: The Art & Science of Reading Lip Prints, is available on Lipsology.com.

206.954.9576

• jilly@lipsology.com

• www.lipsology.com